The Man Without a Country Edward Everett Hale

Illustrated blue cover with gilt writing and decoration. Cloth. The Man Without a Country first appeared in the Atlantic Monthly for December 1863. It was the author's wish that it be published anonymously, in the hope that it might be ascribed to some officer of the Navy; but unfortunately, the man who compiled the year's index for the magazine, which was mailed with the December number, recognized Dr. Hale's handwriting, and gave him credit for it in the index. This is the illustrated edition with notes in the back of the book to familiarize the reader to the people, places and events. There are even intensive study questions which a teacher could use.
