American Federation Of Labor

Of the great educational work which the American Federation of Labor ha done during the past quarter of a century, the public in general has no conception. Mere statistics are wholly inadequate to convey the value of what has been accomplished. The American Federation of Labor has received special acknowledgment and appreciation for data furnished in response to the ever-increasing requests from educators, statisticians, students. National and State Legislators, and others engaged in the study of sociological problems. It is - confidently expected that the next decade will witness further great developments in the application of a sound system of education. The line of progressive industrial education must be constructive. A ny system to be of value must also necessarily be one of growth. The adoption of a scheme of education must train up a far more capable and comprehensive body of citizens by emphasizing their position in society as producers, consumers and as men. A general educational policy which will greatly ease the strain of demoralization which so sadly affects the children of the poor. It ought, by giving vocational training, alongside of cultural training, advance them more at the age of sixteen than now obtains at eighteen. A ssuming, then, that the social stratification in America is vertical, the problem is to find the highest elevation which any youths ability will permit him to reach, and to get him to that elevation. A propos of this problem, the size of which is the length and breadth of A merica, and because of the interdependence of industrial effort, the American Federation of Labor has undertaken a comprehensive study helpful toward its solution. The progress made and reports issued have already had a salutary effect upon educators, employers, the press, and the public in general. Economic considerations plead for the creation and multip
