WITH SUCH AN UNUSUAL story, Jonasson also created an amusing and strangely likable anti-hero in the main character, Allan Karlsson. Karlsson is an elderly man who is feeling the strain of old age and not looking forward to attending the birthday party his fellow residents at the nursing home are holding for him to celebrate his 100th birthday. Not only is Karlsson weighed down by creaking joints as he escapes, but, before long, he is also weighed down by the suitcase that inadvertently comes into his possession via a rude biker who asks him to watch the case while he goes to relieve himself.

With Karlsson's bus about to leave and the biker not yet returned, Karlsson absent-mindedly decides to board the bus with the suitcase he is supposed to be minding.
