The Confederate States of America, 1880: A Novel Burton Raffel

Had there been no Civil War in 1860, and 17 former states happily united into a new nation, the South was almost certain to have steadily drifted away, with its inhabitants living considerably more shaky and dangerous lives. How long would it have been possible to sustain a new nation so selfish and violent, so steadily declining? In The Confederate States of America, Burton Raffel explores these issues, and more.
