The Good Lives Model for Adolescents Who Sexually Harm

This book explains why an agency in the United Kingdom, G-map Treatment Centre in Manchester, chose to move to the Good Lives Model (GLM) and how they adapted the model for work with adolescents. With contributions from Tony Beech and the team at G-map, this book is grounded in six years of practical experience, with how-to chapters on motivating and engaging young people, assessment, GLM planning, transitions and evaluation, and more. This book is a must for any treatment provider looking to stay on top of the field's latest advances.
