Wait Until Moonrise Teri Thackston

Doors that close by themselves. Items that move without human help. Visions of a handsome spirit in the moonlight. Visiting the Welsh castle that is her ancestral home, Bria Leighton is frightened by eerie happenings. Unseen. Unheard. Untouched. Desperately lonely. For more than two hundred years, a curse has trapped Nicholas Pierce, the last Earl of Beaumarith, in his family castle. The words of the wicked sorceress hint that the curse can be broken, but the riddle of moonrise and true love's embrace seems impossible to solve. Impossible until Bria walks into his castle and into his heart. She sees him, hears him...touches him. He must convince her that she is not losing her mind but that he is real...and only she can break the spell. But Bria is only a visitor, coming to grips with a past she has forgotten, secrets revealed, and an alcoholic fiancé whose behavior grows ever more erratic. To complicate matters further, the wicked sorceress Saffira has returned to claim Nicholas for herself. While seeking her past, will Bria become the true love of a centuries-old earl...or will she find herself eternally cursed as well?
